I watched as this headless woman in a beautiful, white, lace gown fumbled around the foyer of what appeared to be the entry way to a cosmic throne room. The foyer was full of individuals that I knew represented the nations and world systems that are held in bondage to darkness. These individuals stood laughing and mocking the Bride as she tripped over herself and moved about with no direction, no purpose, no real life, unable to see where she was going or to speak with authority. [...]

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, “When I am not given first place and Lordship, this is what My Church looks like to the dark powers who hold this world in slavery. Tell My Bride to change the way they think and to put Me again as Lord over their lives. Just as a body without a head cannot stand, neither can a house divided. My house is to be a unified house of prayer, not of division, gossip, slander and jealousy.

“I am dealing with leaders and individuals in My house who have stolen My glory for self-promotion, who have propagated strife and divisions, who have turned My house into a den of thieves, who have not turned away from hidden sin, who have scattered My sheep and lead them astray with false doctrine based on dead works, rather than on union with Me; who have driven My children away from My house due to their lack of self-sacrificing love for My sheep, and who have made My Bride an object of mockery in the nations due to their twisted conditions on who is worthy to receive My grace.

“Watch as I remove these wolves in sheep’s clothing. I will uproot these false prophets and self-seeking shepherds who are invoking fear, confusion and division among My flock, rather than offering them tender-hearted mercy, comfort, encouragement and strength in this hour.” [...]

The Lord then spoke again to me in the vision: “I am restoring headship to My remnant Bride in this hour. She will be a leading force in the nations once again. I have sifted My people and now I am shifting the Josephs, Davids and Esthers into their rightful positions of authority in this hour.”

I then saw Jesus walk from the throne room into the foyer in all His goodness and glory, carrying something under His arm tucked near to His heart. The mockers turned their heads in shame as Christ approached the headless Bride, bent down in front of her, took from His side the head and placed it on her shoulders! The Bride jolted back to life and stood up at full attention to look at her Bridegroom King Jesus! A light began to emanate from her as she looked into her Beloved's eyes.

As I watched them standing face to face, they began to mirror each other. Wherever Jesus moved, she moved. Both were pure and spotless, locked in a love gaze. Like the moon reflects the sun, so was the fire in the eyes of Christ being reflected in the eyes of the Bride.

I heard the Spirit of GOD say, "Arise, let your light shine for all to see. For the glory of the Lord rises to shine on you. Darkness as black as night covers all the nations of the Earth, but the glory of the Lord rises and appears over you. All nations will come to your light; mighty kings will come to see your radiance. Look and see, for everyone is coming home! Your sons are coming from distant lands; your little daughters will be carried home. Your eyes will shine and your heart will thrill with joy as you see the salvation of the Lord in the land and see that My Church, the Bride, the Ecclesia, will again be given leadership in the nations."

I then saw Jesus begin to walk His Bride into the throne room to sit next to her on the throne.
